CALL FOR PAPERS

Conference Focus: Exploring the transformative role of Artificial Intelligence across Business, Education, Technology, and Health.

A2:BETH 2026 invites researchers, practitioners, and doctoral scholars to contribute to a free international interdisciplinary dialogue conference exploring the transformative role of artificial intelligence across business, education, technology, and health. Submit your 200-300 words abstract via the link below: <https://ukmc.ac.uk/conference>

The conference supports internal and external early-career researchers and postgraduate students, providing a platform to share research, gain visibility, and engage with global academic and industry communities.

Whether or not you have research to present, you are warmly welcome to attend and enjoy the conference, come along, connect with others, and be part of the conversation

DETAILED SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The conference welcomes submissions across multiple tracks. Authors must select the most appropriate category and follow the specific requirements outlined below. All submissions must be original, not previously published, and not under review elsewhere.

1. FULL PAPERS | 6,000–8,000 WORDS (EXCLUDING REFERENCES)

Purpose: To present completed, high-quality research with a clear contribution to knowledge.

Requirements:

- Word count: 6,000–8,000 words (excluding references)
- Structure: Title (no author details) · Abstract (200–300 words) · Keywords (4–6) · Introduction · Literature Review · Methodology · Findings/Results · Discussion · Conclusion · References
- Referencing style: APA or Harvard (consistent throughout)

Expectation: Strong theoretical grounding, clear research design, and critical analysis (not descriptive writing).

Outcome: Eligible for full paper presentation and publication consideration.

2. SHORT PAPERS / WORK-IN-PROGRESS | 3,000–4,000 WORDS

Purpose: To showcase early-stage research, innovative ideas, or preliminary findings.

Requirements:

- Word count: 3,000–4,000 words
- Structure (flexible): Research aim/questions · Brief literature context · Proposed or initial methodology · Expected or preliminary findings

Expectation: Clear research direction and demonstrated potential contribution.

Outcome: Oral or poster presentation (to be determined by reviewers).

3. INDUSTRY CASE STUDIES | 3,000–5,000 WORDS

Purpose: To present practical applications of AI in real-world settings.

Requirements:

- Word count: 3,000–5,000 words
- Structure: Context/organizational background · Problem or challenge · AI solution or approach · Implementation process · Outcomes and impact · Lessons learned

Expectation: Critical reflection (not just storytelling) with a clear link to AI and conference themes.

Outcome: Presentation with strong practitioner engagement.

4. POSTERS & DOCTORAL RESEARCH | 1,000–1,500 WORD ABSTRACT

Purpose: To support PhD students and emerging researchers in presenting developing work.

Requirements:

- Submission format: Extended abstract (1,000–1,500 words)
- Structure: Research background · Problem statement · Research questions/objectives · Methodology (proposed or ongoing) · Expected contribution
- Poster format: A1 size (portrait or landscape) with clear visual presentation of key ideas

Expectation: Clarity, originality, and engagement with conference themes.

Outcome: Poster presentation with interactive discussion.
